Su Bong Zen Monastery

Su Bong Zen Monastery needs your support!

Su Bong Zen Monastery, located in the heart of Hong Kong, offers regular Zen practice programs to the public each week and is a place for resting the mind. In addition, through the Zen practice offered by our temples in Luk Wu, urban dweller can open their mind to attain truth, access wisdom and compassion and find the correct human way to help all beings from suffering.

Fundraising Purpose: The funds raised from this year's Hwa Om Song Jung kido will be used for running our retreat centers, conserving nature, and repairing and maintaining our 70 to 90 year-old temples in Luk Wu, namely, Gak Su Temple, Sim Pak Lam, Lotus Shelter, Kin Shan Gak, and Wai Sau Yuan. We aspire to provide generations of laypeople, monks and nuns with comfortable and safe places to practice, to rest and purify their minds, and to attain their true selves. Although we sometimes lack resources and manpower, we have as well as always held our mission to protect Lantau's natural environment and Luk Wu's more than 100 years of practicing history.

Event Details: Led by our guiding teachers and sunims, we will chant Hwa Om Song Jung non-stop for 3 days and 2 nights from September 1-3. All friends from ten directions are welcome to participate in this chanting practice. Donors and practitioners are welcome to sponsor a Bodhi tree leaf. They may write their wishes on the leaves, and then submit them to the office for hanging the leaves on the Bodhi tree that is set up especially for this event. The leaves will be hung on the tree till the end of the event.

And now, please support our retreat centers so that we can continue to promote Zen practice and conserve nature, our original minds, and Zen practicing culture. We thank you in advance for your kind support.
